THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

It is well with my soul

Not only is this my favourite hymn growing up in the church, but it is also my honest daily prayer with the Lord. It used to be the tune and the chorus that first drew me to the song, as soon as I was able to play during church service, this would be my 'go to' hymn. It can be played with so much emotion especially ending in a climax by transposing to a different key and adding flavour and power to the last verse. The older I got the more the words in the verses gained meaning. "when peace like a river attendeth my way, when sorrows like sea billows roll - whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say, it is well, it is well with my soul'

'My sin... (O the joy of this glorious thought!), my sin, not in part but the WHOLE, is nailed to the cross and I bear it NO MORE. PRAISE THE LORD, PRAISE THE LORD it is well.' God knows me inside and out, he sees what I have done, what I am doing and what I am about to do. He has already taken care of it.

We are living in the end times and life as we know it is going to get more challenging. Health issues, finances issues, relationship breakdowns, saying goodbye to loved ones are becoming more and more. So what do we have to look forward to? If you are not sure...turn to HYMN 530 in the black Advent Hymnal...

'And Lord hast the day when my faith shall be sight! When clouds be rolled back as a scroll. The trump shall resound and the Lord shall descend! Even so it is well with my soul!

May this be your daily prayer too. Amen

Cedrene
