THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

This week some people will have experienced great joy and happiness. Others will be grieving and wondering how to go on with life. In Revelation, we see that the end is coming, but also how much God loves us and cares for us.

Here are two passages from E.G. White Notes for the Sabbath School Lessons: The Book of Revelation that can encourage us for the days ahead.

It should be the determination of every soul, not so much to seek to understand all about the conditions that will prevail in the future state, as to know what the Lord requires of him in this life. It is the will of God that each professing Christian shall perfect a character after the divine similitude. By studying the character of Christ revealed in the Bible, by practicing His virtues, the believer will be changed into the same likeness of goodness and mercy.

Counsels to Parents, Teachers, and Students, pp. 248, 249

When we really believe that God loves us and means to do us good we shall cease to worry about the future. We shall trust God as a child trusts a loving parent. Then our troubles and torments will disappear, for our will is swallowed up in the will of God.

Christ has given us no promise of help in bearing today the burdens of tomorrow. He has said, "My grace is sufficient for thee" (2 Corinthians 12:9); but like manna given in the wilderness His grace is bestowed daily, for the day's need. Like the hosts of Israel in their pilgrim life, we may find morning by morning the bread of heaven for the day's supply.

One day alone is ours, and during this day we are to live for God. For this one day we are to place in the hand of Christ, in solemn service, all our purposes and plans, casting all our care upon Him, for He careth for us.
