THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

As I have visited some who are in need of miracles the past few weeks, it remains priority in my mind that Jesus needs to come and fetch His flock. I suppose that the afflictions of life isn't any more or less than what they have been through the ages, but it certainly feels much closer to home for me, than ever before. Max Lucado is an author I don't mind reading, and I happened to read a thought of his recently. It is about those scales, remember, the ones where the weighty bit go on one side, and the produce on the other.

"Our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory." (2 Corinthians 4:17)

The words "weight of glory" conjure up images of the ancient pan scale. Remember the blindfolded lady of justice? She holds a pan scale - two pans, one on either side of the needle. The weight of a purchase would be determined by placing weights on one side and the purchase on the other. God does the same with our struggles. On one side he stacks all our burdens. Illness. Work issues. Family situations. Relationships. Bad breaks, bad health, bad days. Symptoms of something you always wished would never be. Stack them up, and watch one side of the pan scale plummet.

Now witness God's response. Does he remove them? Eliminate the burdens? No, rather than take them, he offsets them. He places an eternal weight of glory on the other side. Endless joy. Measureless peace. An eternity of him. Watch what happens as he sets eternity on your scale.

Everything changes! The burdens lift. The heavy becomes light when weighed against eternity. If life is "just a moment," can't we endure any challenge for a moment?
