WEEKLY THOUGHT

SERVING IN HUMILITY

All of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. 1 Peter 5:5

Here is the secret, Peter says, to genuinely and consistently serving others: humility. As long as you are set upon pleasing yourself, fulfilling yourself, seeking self advancement, you will never be able to genuinely serve others.

Be clothed with humility - a wonderful and poignant way of emphasizing the need for a constant covering of our self-seeking human nature. Let humility be the attire you choose to walk in, live in each day.

Why live this self-depreciating, self-denying way of life? The reply is simple and powerful: God resist the proud, but give grace and help to the humble.

Those who lower themselves to serve others will find that God himself is serving them! He gives to the humble, others-oriented saint and unforgiveness and strength and supply they do not deserved but so desperately need.

On the other hand, those who seek to exalt and help and please themselves should realize that they are literally anti-God! They are choosing sides, and the battle will be them against God.

Which describes your conditions today? Do you find God meeting your every need as you seek sincerely to meet the needs of others, or you are only interested in seeking your own good.?

God resist the proud, but helps those who help others.

Prayer: Lord, give me a humble heart to serve you. Amen.

Scriptural Reading: 1 Peter 5:5-7

God bless.
