THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

In Praise of God's Goodness

"We need to praise God more for His goodness and for His wonderful works to the children of men." Psalms 107:8

Our daily devotions to our Heavenly father should not always consist of wholly in asking and receiving. Let us not always be thinking of our wants and never of the benefits we receive from the prayers we offer. In the many prayers offered, how often do we ever remember to praise our our Almighty Father for His Everlasting goodness and mercies that He has so freely bestowed upon us every single waking day of our lives? We should always remember that we are the constant recipients of His mercies and yet how little we always praise Him for what He has done for us.

Anciently, the Lord bade Israel when they met together for His service, "Ye shall eat before the Lord your God, and ye shall rejoice in all that ye put your hand unto, ye and your households, wherein the Lord your God hath blessed thee" Deutronomy 12:7

That which is done for the glory of God should always be done with cheerfulness, with songs of praise and thanksgiving and not with sadness and gloom. We serve a God who is a tender, merciful Father. His service should never be looked upon as a heart-saddening, distressing exercise. It should be a pleasure to worship the Lord and to take part in His work. God would not have His children, for whom so great salvation has been provided to act as if he were a hard, demanding, loveless master. He is our best friend, He wants to have an unbroken relationship with us and when we worship Him, He expects to be with us, to bless and comfort us, filling our hearts with His joy and everlasting love.

The Lord desires His children to always take comfort in His service and to find more pleasure than hardship in His work. He desires that those who worship Him shall carry away with them precious thoughts of His care and love, that they may be cheered in all the employments of daily life, that we may have grace to deal honestly, humbly and with faithfulness in all things we encounter. We must gather about the cross. Christ and Him crucified should be the theme of our everyday contemplation, conversation, actions and of our most joyful emotion. We should keep in our thoughts every blessing we receive from God and when we realise His great love, we should be willing to trust everything to the hand that was nailed to the cross for us.
