THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

No Angry Parents Here!

Ephesians 6:4 says, 'Fathers (and mothers) do not exasperate your children, instead bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.'

That's a tall order isn't it?

But what does it mean to exasperate (or provoke) your children to anger?

- a) by being too stern or restrictive
- b) by setting them unrealistic goals in academic or sports activities
- c) by comparing them unfavourably with their brother or sister
- d) by using harsh or hurtful words or actions to them

Then how should we bring them up?

- a) Take time to be with your children every day: play, read, go places together.
- b) Lead, guide, nurture them in the ways of the Lord by (i) having a devotional time with them every day (ii) bringing them to Sabbath School on time every Sabbath (iii) teaching by example: if you live a godly life, they will know your values and character.
- c) Pray for your children and ask for wisdom and discernment in knowing the ways to be a good parent.

Why should we do these things?

Proverbs 29:15 says that 'a child left to himself disgraces his mother' (and father). If a child is left by him/her self, they often turn to technology. They very soon pick up the ways and values of the world, which are often contrary to Christ's ways. So it may be good to limit and monitor their time in front of a screen.

Jesus loves our children. He died to save them for eternity. He's given us the awesome task of caring for our children and training them to be citizens of heaven. They should be one of our highest priorities! So please tell your children you love them and that Jesus loves them too!
