THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK:

Promises, Promises, Promises

I like it when people keep their promises, don't you? It's so nice when people mean what they say and do what they say they'll do. Then you can rely on them, trust them and depend on them.

It's the same with God, only more so. God makes many promises to us. Promises relevant to us in all kinds of situations: promises for guidance, for hope and for encouragement. We can therefore take comfort in knowing that we can trust God in any situation.

Here are a few of my favourite promises:

Come to me, all you who are weary and carry heavy burdens and I will give you rest. Matt. 11:28

I will never fail you, I will never abandon you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Deut. 31:8

If you forgive those who sin against you, your heavenly Father will forgive you. Matt. 6:14

Trust in the Lord with all your heart; do not depend on your own understanding. Seek His will in all you do and He will show you which path to take. Prov. 3:5-6

God is our refuge and strength, always ready to help in times of trouble. Ps. 46:1

I am going to prepare a place for you...I will come back and take you to be with me. John 14:3

Let's be a church family who keep their promises. Let's do what we say we'll do, so we can be an example of trustworthy, reliable, honest Christians!
