* * * THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK * * *

Manv of us today want to live in the spotlight. but God is looking for intercessors. Joshua fought the Amalekites, as long as Moses' hands were held up to heaven his side won. The moment Moses got tired of holding his hands up. the enemy side prevailed. Then when Moses was tired. Aaron and Hur held his hands up and Joshua prevailed (Ex. 17:10-16). What a picture of the power of intercessors prayer!

Far from the crowd and Spotlight. but seen by the eye of God. are precious Christians who hold up the hands of ministers in ceaseless prayers, and God is looking for more of them. They never appear in public spotlight but give themselves wholly to prayer. Preachers may shake the world's pulpits but they are not doing it alone. That is the ministry of intercession and God could be calling you to join in today. It is a ministry of non-identification which calls you away from the pleasures and comforts of life to humility and complete dependence on God alone.

With His authority God will listen, hear and answer your honest prayers.

Have a great time full of blessings.

Priscilla Bhebhe.
