* * * THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK * * *

Blessings

Oh how great is thy goodness, which thou hast laid up for them that fear thee; which thou hast wrought for them that trust in thee before the sons of men! Ps. 31:19

Hope, joy, and peace. These are all qualities we want to hold on to. It is difficult when we feel like we are under a black cloud and facing many challenges. I was reminded of where we need to look and the importance of our perspective on my way to an early class on a very wet morning. When I looked out of my office windows, all I saw was rain, rain, and dark clouds. When I stepped outside the door, the sun appeared with the most beautiful double rainbow I had ever seen. What we saw all depended on our direction. I met a colleague walking down the hill protected under her umbrella watching out for the puddles, while those walking up the hill were getting their cameras out to take pictures. My greeting was a quick good morning and look—what a beautiful start to the work day.

Rejoice in our confident hope. Be patient in trouble, and keep on praying. Rom. 12:2

Ellen White (Our High Calling, p. 10) writes about the importance of praise. “God scatters blessings all along our path to brighten our journey and lead our hearts out to love and praise Him, and He wants us to draw water from the well of salvation that our hearts may be refreshed. ... We may cheer our own hearts, and we may cheer the hearts of others; hope may be strengthened, darkness turned to light.” She reminds us that God is waiting to help us with our burdens. We all remember Jesus’ invitation to come to Him with our burdens for comfort and rest.

This week as we enjoy the beauty of spring, let us look for ways to cheer and strengthen others as we praise God for his love and goodness to us.

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope. Rom. 15:13
