* * * THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK * * *

A Different Kind of Journey

Many embark on a journey for different reasons. Recently, we heard of the fate of hundreds of migrants fleeing Africa through Libya across the Mediterranean for the purpose of finding a better life in Europe. It was confirmed that more than 800 people were missing or dead in this latest Mediterranean Sea disaster. For two of our young people, this Sabbath will mark the beginning of a different kind of journey. Both of them have made a crucial decision to respond to the invitation to follow Jesus—not an easy decision when many young people are today seduced by a different leading for a variety of reasons.

We have known Mervyn for a considerable number of years. He is a talented young man and very active in church. We are grateful to God for his life. He is a gift entrusted not only to his parents but to our church community. I remember when Naomi joined us, the first time I noticed her in church was with her dad—Shy but an intelligent and determined young woman. She has been another wonderful gift to our church community. Over the years, she has consistently helped with both the Adventurers and Pathfinders. I sat in some of the Bible studies and I heard the questions asked by these young people, I felt the excitement as they explore the Bible, and demonstrate the desire to know more about God’s will. Both of them are developing spiritually, mentally and socially. There is no doubt that they are in “favour with God and man”.

When we respond to His call we start the journey with Jesus. As disciples we are expected to place ourselves at the Master’s disposal, although we retain the right to dictate our own terms—not an easy task. How are you going to respond to His call, “Follow me?” The Christian journey should not be dreary or scary, it is an adventure but not without challenges. And for those who chose to go on this journey may the words of Hymn 624 be your prayer:

I Want Jesus to Walk With Me
I Want Jesus to Walk With Me
All along my pilgrim journey
Lord, I want Jesus to walk with me

In my trials, Lord, walk with me
In my trials, Lord, walk with me
When my heart is almost breaking
Lord, I want Jesus to walk with me

When I’m in trouble, Lord, walk with me
When I’m in trouble, Lord, walk with me
When my head is bowed in sorrow
Lord, I want Jesus to walk with me

In my sorrow, Lord, walk with me
In my sorrow, Lord, walk with me
When my burden gets too heavy
Lord, I want Jesus to walk with me

May this occasion be an opportunity to renew our commitment with God.
